Overview

Located in the heart of Niagara, Welland is a 1.5 hour drive from Toronto and 45 minutes from Buffalo, NY. Home to Niagara College, and just a short drive to Brock University, the city is home to local and international students. Rich with multiculturalism and community spirit, Welland is a youth and senior friendly city that endeavors to keep all citizens active, happy, and healthy. We cherish our past, appreciate the present, and continue to grow a bright future.

- Access to 75% of North America's purchasing power
- Within driving distance of 60% of the U.S. and 62% of the Canadian industrial market
- 7 of the top 10 U.S. industrial states are within one day's trucking of Welland and it is even closer to major U.S. markets than Florida, Texas and California
- The St. Lawrence Seaway links Welland to ocean ports in such places as Hong Kong, the Pacific Rim, Europe, and North and South America.
- Easy access to the U.S. and major international transportation gateways by auto, plane and train

Welland is at the geographical centre of Niagara's diversified manufacturing base and supply chain network. Welland's strong labour force has ready-to-go experience and depth in precision machining, metal forming, electrical & connectivity, hydraulics and power distribution. The region excels in advanced manufacturing, aerospace, shipbuilding, logistics, transportation equipment and primary metal manufacturing. Welland also has easy access to world-class automotive research centres at Niagara College, McMaster University, the University of Waterloo and the University of Windsor.

Welland's population has increased by 3.5% since 2011 and is forecasted to grow due to its enhanced quality of life. Welland and the Niagara Region are among Canada's most culturally rich, affordable and safe places to live. Cost of living expenses are among Canada's lowest.
