PROPERTY OVERVIEW

121 Concession Street East is a well-maintained freestanding commercial property in the Town of Tillsonburg. Originally developed in 1985, the property has undergone multiple renovations, with the most recent expansion completed in 2005. Situated along a high-traffic commercial corridor, the asset has a strong history of retail success, having operated as a Peavey Mart for many years. Despite its strong performance, the store closed due to broader corporate challenges and the nationwide closure of all 90 Peavey Mart locations.

Prior to Peavey Mart, the property was home to a TSC Store, a longstanding fixture in the community and a consistently high-performing retail location. The site benefits from its strategic positioning among national retailers and mid-rise residential developments, reinforcing the area's strong commercial and residential growth.
